

The St. Lawrence Parks

The St. Lawrence Parks system is the major playground of Eastern Canada. The Parks Commission manages more than ten thousand acres of parkland along the St. Lawrence River, scattered through fifteen major campsite areas from the Bay of Quinte to the Quebec border. It maintains over 2,500 camp and trailer sites, offering a wide choice of location and scenery. Most sites are serviced, with modern lavatory buildings, electrical outlets and trailer dumping stations.

Day use areas have large sandy beaches, water safety supervision, refreshment stands and picnic tables. Many have boat launching facilities. All parks and attractions are readily accessible from Highway 401.

Sailing, yachting, watching the ocean-going freighters, swimming, riding, golfing, picnicking, camping and more than a little history... all these things can be had within the compass of the St. Lawrence Parks System.

As well, the Commission operates two of North America's finest historic sites, Old Fort Henry at Kingston and Upper Canada Village near Morrisburg.
